One of the interesting characters of the war is Donald Thompson, the Kansas photographer, who has at imes supplied exclusive photographs. Recently he returned to the continent after a visit to London. He was arrested by the Germans, but even this did not deter him from getting the pictures he went after. Mr. Thompon again is in London, from where has sent the dispatch which apsears below.

Peering from the concealment of s clump of bushes, he observed for some time the frantic but futile of forts of his hand to run a straight furrow. Finally the poor fellow came to a discouraged half, mopped his brow, and addressed the horses

"Oh, well then go wherever you please," he said. "It all ban got to pe ploughed anyway."-- Everybody's.

Tobacco Habit

See the photo of H. B. McCulloch. He's a happy man since becoming freed from the clavery of tabacca that was making him miserable and shortening his lifethe wame as it is doing to others. Now he writes:

"I was a tobacco near for many years, wanted to quit, but conidn't find anything to help me. I smoked continually until nervous, alsepless and almost down and out. Now I am completely rid of the habit, alsep well and all telling these facts for the good of humanity." Whoever wants to get rid of the habit of smoking or chewing should write to Edward J. Woods, 513D. Station E. New York city, and get the valuable book that will be mailed free.
